

Codicil form

Amending your Will

If you already have a Will and would like to add a cash and/or specific gift for Samaritans, you can do so by completing this simple Codicil form.

Please do not write on your existing Will as it could become invalid.

Please read the guidance notes below before completing the following Codicil form.

Codicil form guidance notes

We hope you find these guidance notes useful. Please note that this guidance does not constitute legal advice. If you have any questions, we recommend that you ask a solicitor or legal professional for advice.

1. Ask two people to witness your signature. Please ensure you sign this form in the presence of two independent witnesses.

The following people cannot witness your Codicil:

- an executor or trustee of your Will
- an executor's or trustee's spouse or civil partner
- a beneficiary of your Will or Codicil
- a beneficiary's spouse or civil partner.

2. Sign the Codicil in the presence of both your witnesses.

3. Ask your witnesses to complete their sections in the presence of you and each other. It is also advisable for you and your witnesses to sign at the foot of each page.

4. Take a photocopy of your Codicil and send the original to your solicitor, or whoever is safeguarding your Will.

5. You can add more than one Codicil to an existing Will. Please indicate the version number when completing the form, for example 'first Codicil' or 'third Codicil'.

If you wish to leave Samaritans part or all your residuary estate (i.e. a share or whole) we advise that you replace an existing Will and consult a solicitor or legal professional.

If you have any other questions about completing the form please get in touch with our Gifts in Wills team by calling 03709 00 00 32, or emailing giftsinwills@samaritans.org

Guidance provided in this booklet is based on the laws of England and Wales. Legal requirements may differ in the other nations within the UK. It is always advisable to consult a legal professional to assist in preparing your Will.
