The teacher says to Sally:
“You are late for the second time this week.
I don’t believe that your mum’s car broke down. You’re on detention.”

Damien is getting lunch from the canteen and a group of four students push in front of him. He had been waiting ages.

John had been preparing a surprise birthday party for his girlfriend. It has meant lying to them about where he’d been in order for it to be a surprise. She has become suspicious about it and accuses him of cheating.

Jane’s parent says that she can’t go out with her friends as she has to stay in and look after her little sister. She really wants to go out as it’s her friend’s birthday.

Mo has forgotten to bring his homework to school. The teacher accuses him of not completing it.